

Mt. Hayes Fire Update

As of Friday night, the Mt Hayes wildfire continues to be contained by the BC Wildfire Service with no substantial growth reported throughout the day. Quieter and changing wind patterns are expected overnight and area residents may anticipate seeing increased smoke over Ladysmith on Saturday.

BC Wildfire Service is expected to deploy similar resources tomorrow for combatting the fire.

For urgent public inquiries over the weekend please contact the Cowichan Valley Regional District's Regional Emergency Operations Centre after hours phone line by dialling 778-402-9596.

Watch for another update on Saturday morning with the latest information on the Mt Hayes wildfire.
