Cowichan supports Nova Scotians after tragic mass shooting

DUNCAN, BC – The Cowichan Valley Regional District (CVRD) will lower flags at all its facilities to half mast this week in recognition of the lives lost in the horrific mass shooting in Nova Scotia.

“Residents across our region are deeply saddened and affected by the news out of Nova Scotia yesterday, and our hearts and thoughts are with all those who lost loved ones to this senseless act of violence,” said Aaron Stone, Chair of the Cowichan Valley Regional District.

The World’s Largest Hockey Stick at the Cowichan Community Centre will also be lit up as a show of solidarity for those communities who are reeling from this tragic event.
