

Help plan the future of recreation in the Cowichan region!

The Cowichan Valley Regional District is conducting a recreation planning project to better understand the current state of services and provide information that can be used to inform future decisions on facilities, programs, and regional partnerships.

What do you like about current recreation opportunities in the Cowichan region?

What requires improvement?

Place your sticky notes here!