FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stage 1 Water Restrictions Effective May 1, 2026

COWICHAN VALLEY, BC – Each year on May 1, Cowichan Valley Regional District (CVRD) and municipal water systems and participating partners will collectively implement Stage 1 water restrictions in an effort to conserve water use on residential properties and ensure aquifers and lakes can withstand the increasingly dry summers.

In Stage 1 sprinkling can occur 2 hours maximum, 2 days per week between the hours of 7 p.m. and 9 a.m. Hand-watering, micro/drip irrigation subject to daily maximum for food or ornamental gardens is allowed.

“We ask all residents in our region to do their best to conserve water when possible and to follow the water use restrictions for their area,” said Jeff Moore, Manager of Environmental Services for the Cowichan Valley Regional District. “As our snowpack levels are very low, continued dry weather could strain many of our water systems in the region. We want to ensure residents are aware of the potential need to raise restriction levels even earlier than what we’ve done collectively in recent years.”

Local governments and water purveyors across the Cowichan region continue to collaborate on water restrictions to ensure they balance the needs of residents for household use, fire protection and irrigation with those of the watersheds, in recognition of the extreme drought conditions experienced in recent summers.

Water restrictions apply to all CVRD water systems, and City of Duncan, Municipality of North Cowichan, Cowichan Tribes, Town of Ladysmith, Town of Lake Cowichan, and Diamond Improvement District. Residents of other improvement districts and private water systems along with private well owners in the region are encouraged to follow regional water restrictions.

2026 WATER USE RESTRICTIONS

Outdoor watering is permitted on your designated day as per the table, except between 9 AM and 7 PM.

Watering in the evening, nighttime or early morning reduces water wasted due to evaporation and reduces the peak water consumption by spreading out the use over a longer period of time.
