Product Information

Allowable vs Non-Allowable Items

All product must be handmade, homemade, homegrown or original, unique work and/or design. All items for sale on your table must have been created by you, a friend, or family members. Printed material, including images and writing, must be the artist's or author's own work. Please do not advertise other craft markets at your booth or place promotional materials in other locations around the facility without permission from management.

Please refer to our Vendor Information Guide for more information regarding allowable products and non-allowable products. If you are uncertain about one of your products, please confirm its eligibility with Adrienne Doneley as soon as possible. (christmaschaos@cvrld.bc.ca)

Please list and include photos of all products to be sold so we can ensure they meet our craft fair criteria.

All products must be approved by our staff prior to Christmas Chaos. You may be asked to remove items at your table that have not been pre-approved before the start date if they do not align with our guidelines..
